

Zewalian Life - A Gaming Experience

This presentation introduces Zewalian Life, a game that explores the life inside the Zewail City, with the opportunity for players to interact with the society and create their own story.

Introduction to Zewalian Life Game

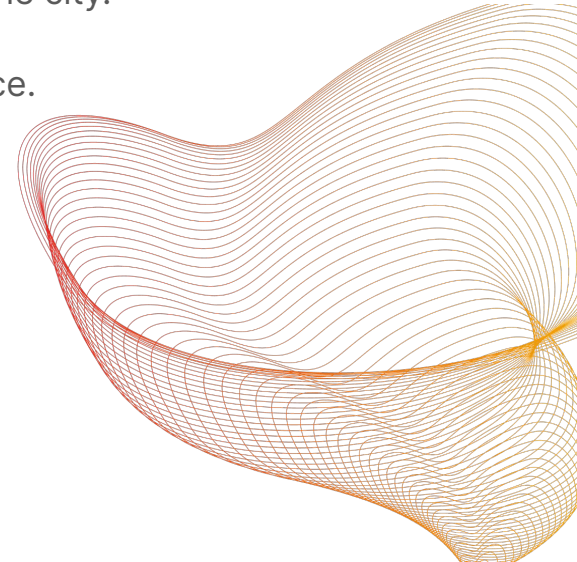

- A game that showcases the life inside the Zewail City and the University of Zewail.
- Players can explore the different facilities inside the city and interact with the society.
- The game allows players to make their choices and create their own story.

Features of Zewalian Life

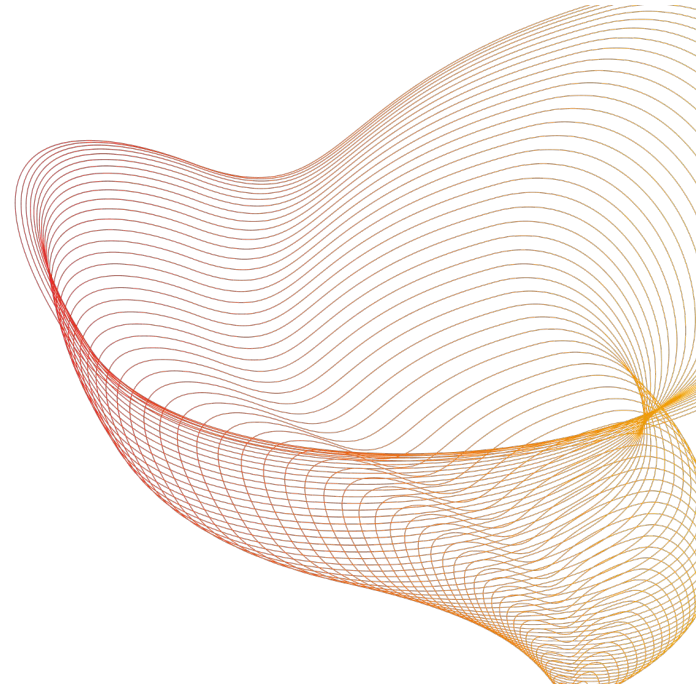

- A main menu that allows players to start the game, view objectives, and customize settings.
- 2D graphics that provide an immersive visual experience.
- Players can tap to show controls and move the character around the city.
- Background music enhances the gaming experience.
- Players can adjust or mute the volume according to their preference.

Characters and Interactions

- The game allows the player to select a male or female character.
- Players can interact with other characters by chatting with them.
- The game features an extensive map that players can explore and enter different rooms.
- Players can collect items and grades during the game.

Thank you for your time